QUALITY POLICY

We commit ourselves to satisfy our student community through quality teaching and by concentrating on Teaching-Learning process. We strive to give continuous improvement and skill development to the students through teamwork.

Message from the Chairman

At E.G.S. PILLAY ENGINEERING COLLEGE, NAGAPATTINAM, we consider our human resources—faculty, staff, and administrators—as the driving force behind our institution’s growth and reputation. This Human Resource Policy Manual is a reflection of our commitment to building a transparent, ethical, and supportive work environment that empowers every individual to achieve professional excellence and contribute meaningfully to the institution’s mission.

Our policies are designed not only to comply with statutory and regulatory frameworks such as AICTE, NBA, NAAC, and ISO but also to uphold the values of integrity, inclusiveness, and continuous improvement. We believe that a well-structured HR framework fosters innovation, accountability, and collaboration, which are essential for preparing our students to face global challenges in engineering and technology.

I am confident that this policy manual will serve as a valuable guide for all employees and will help us move forward collectively towards our vision of being a premier institution of technical education and research.

Smt. S. Jothimani G.S. Pillay

Chairman, EGSPEC

Message from the Secretary

Human resources are the most valuable asset of any institution, and at E.G.S. PILLAY ENGINEERING COLLEGE, NAGAPATTINAM, we are committed to creating an environment where every faculty member and staff can grow personally and professionally. This Human Resource Policy Manual is a step towards ensuring transparency, accountability, and uniformity in all HR practices.

As an institution dedicated to academic excellence and innovation in engineering education, we recognize the importance of nurturing our employees by providing them with opportunities for professional development, welfare measures, and a supportive workplace. This manual serves as a guiding document to strengthen institutional governance while ensuring compliance with statutory requirements and accreditation standards.

I firmly believe that with collective effort, commitment, and adherence to these policies, we can foster a culture of integrity, collaboration, and continuous improvement that will take [College Name] to greater heights.

Shree. S. Senthilkumar

Secretary, EGSPEC

Message from the Joint Secretary

It gives me immense pleasure to present the Human Resource Policy Manual of our esteemed institution. Human resources are the most valuable asset of any educational organization, and this policy document is a step towards ensuring transparency, fairness, and consistency in managing our faculty and staff.

Our institution has always believed that quality education can only be delivered when we nurture and support dedicated faculty and staff members. This manual defines the rights, responsibilities, and benefits of all employees while also outlining the expectations of professionalism, ethics, and commitment. The policies framed herein are aligned with the guidelines of AICTE, UGC, and other statutory bodies, while also reflecting the vision and values of our management. It is our sincere effort to create a positive work culture that encourages learning, innovation, research, and holistic development of every member of our academic community.

I urge all faculty and staff members to familiarize themselves with this manual and adhere to its policies and procedures. Together, let us work towards achieving academic excellence and preparing our students to face the challenges of the future with confidence and competence.

I extend my best wishes to everyone for their cooperation and commitment in building our institution into a center of knowledge, innovation, and values.

Shree. Shankar Ganesh

Joint Secretary ,EGSPEC

Message from the Principal

Our faculty and staff are the backbone of E.G.S. PILLAY ENGINEERING COLLEGE, NAGAPATTINAM, and their dedication plays a vital role in shaping the academic and professional success of our students. The Human Resource Policy Manual has been prepared to provide clarity, fairness, and consistency in all aspects of human resource management within the institution.

The policies outlined here focus on professional development, performance excellence, welfare, and ethical conduct, ensuring that every individual has the opportunity to contribute their best. By aligning our HR practices with the vision and mission of the college, as well as regulatory standards, we aim to create a workplace that encourages innovation, collaboration, and lifelong learning.

I urge every member of the institution to adopt the principles of this manual in their day-to-day professional practices and contribute towards building [College Name] as a centre of excellence in engineering education and research.

Dr. M. Chinnadurai

Principal, EGSPEC

Introduction

The Human Resource Policy Manual of E.G.S. PILLAY ENGINEERING COLLEGE, NAGAPATTINAM is designed to provide a comprehensive framework for managing faculty members, administrative staff, and supporting personnel in alignment with the institution's vision and mission. As an engineering college committed to academic excellence, research advancement, and holistic student development, we recognize that our faculty and staff are our most valuable assets.

This manual establishes clear guidelines and procedures relating to recruitment, service conditions, professional development, performance evaluation, employee welfare, and code of conduct. It ensures that all HR practices are transparent, equitable, and compliant with statutory regulations and accreditation requirements such as AICTE, NBA, NAAC, and ISO.

The objectives of this policy manual are to:

- Promote fairness, accountability, and consistency in human resource management.
- Define the roles, responsibilities, and rights of all employees.
- Encourage a professional, ethical, and collaborative work culture.
- Support the personal and career growth of faculty and staff.
- Align human resource practices with the long-term strategic goals of the institution.

1. Recruitment Policy and Procedure

Effectiveness of an institution depends on the competence and quality of its human resources. The objective of this policy is to ensure a streamlined recruitment process in identifying and hiring best qualified candidates for all given positions.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

1. When a vacancy needs to be filled up, the HOD has to submit the requisition requirement form with justification duly approved by the Principal to HRD. The HRD will review the application basing on need as per the AICTE norms. The college has to maintain student faculty ratio as per AICTE norms from time to time.

2. All posts at the Institutes Hall normally and as for as possible, be filled by advertisement; but, the “Governing Body” (GB) shall be the exclusive power to decide, either on its own or on the recommendations of the principal, that a particular post be filled by invitation or by promotion from amongst the members of the staff of the Institute. Appointments, with or without grades, in the Institute will be created on Ad-hoc, Temporary, and Regular as per the requirement of actual manpower, from time to time.

3. Additional posts may also be created, as required, for the extension of specific projects and/or research and development activities.

4. All appointments of the staff of the Institute shall be approved by the “Governing Body” of the Institute.

Internal Selection:

HR will first examine whether the vacancy can be filled up from among the internal candidates, either by way of transfer from the surplus staff or by way of up gradation/promotion.

If no suitable person is available within the institution, HR will proceed to fill up the vacancy from the open market.

Advertisement:

HR will, in consultation with the principal, prepare an advertisement for release in the newspapers/browse from job portals. If the decision is to entrust the selection work to a Placement Agency, the advertisement will be forwarded to them.

Direct recruitment:

If any need arises, if any suitable candidate approaches and seeks job, principal in consultation with HR can constitute an Interview Panel and conduct spot selection process.

Scrutiny and Short listing:

HR will, on receipt of the applications along with the desired documents and two referrals, screen them so as to draw up a shortlist of candidates for Preliminary Interview. Technical/functional interviews shall be scheduled after consulting with concerned technical/functional Heads.

Interview Panel:

The Preliminary Interview Panel will be constituted by the HR in consultation with the principal.

Selection Committee for teaching staff:

The following are the members of Selection Committee for selection of Professor/ Associate Professor/ Asst. Professor.

Head of the Institute

Head of Department

Two internal Subject experts not below the rank of Professor

One External Subject expert not below the rank of Professor

Professor Selection Committee for Non-teaching staff:

All regular appointments of nonteaching staff are made by the non-teaching selection committee constituted by the principal from time-to-time

PROBATION AND CONFIRMATION

Appointment/Provisional Letter:

The selection result will be informed to the candidate after ascertaining the antecedence etc. In any case it should not take more than 7 working Days. The Provisional order will be issued at the time of selection and at the time of joining a standard letter of appointment will be issued to the candidate.

Induction/Orientation program:

HRD has to arrange induction program, and the new recruits are exposed to various functions before being placed in their actual jobs. The Induction training will be carried out on Institution history and philosophy, rules and regulations, facilities, and policies and procedures, basic etiquettes and HR policies. They will then report to their respective HOD's for a detailed introduction to the activities of the department.

Policy & Procedural Formalities for Completion of Probation:

1. All new employees will be on probation for a period of 12months from the date of joining. While the formal probation appraisal shall be at the end of 12 months, the concerned HOD will review the performance of the probationer at the end of probation period. This assessment will be on the parameters like Discipline, Attitude, Application, Job Knowledge, teaching skills and group values. The performance valuation report will be submitted to HR Department.

2. During probation, the notice period on either side will be one month. It is mandatory to serve the notice period and the option of offsetting the notice

3. period, partly or fully will be at the sole discretion of the management. The management may also, at its sole discretion, accept notice pay in lieu of the notice period. Notice pay shall mean gross salary of the employee including allowances, if any HR Department will send the Probation Appraisal form to the concerned HOD at least one month before completion of the probation period.

4. The HOD will discuss the performance of the probationer and record the employee's strengths and required areas of improvement. Duly completed Probationary Appraisal Form with the recommendation of the HOD for confirmation, recommended by the principal/Director will be sent to HR Department at least one week before the completion of the probation period for the issue of Confirmation Letter.

Extension of Probation Period:

1. In such instances where an employee does not meet the required standards of performance, the HOD may recommend extension of the probation. Probation period may be extended under any of the following circumstances:

- Performance of the probationer is not up to expectations
- The role and the skill soft probationer are not aligned
- Probationer's values are not aligned with the institute's values

2. The probation may be extended only once. When probation is extended for an employee, the HOD shall send the Probationary

Appraisal Form to HR Department at least 7 days before the expiry of probation, clearly stating the reasons for extension. Based on the recommendation of the HOD, HR Department will formally communicate the extension of the probation through a letter to the employee through the HOD. The performance will be reviewed once again at the end of the extended probation period. The probationer's services may be confirmed subject to satisfactory performance. If the probationer's performance remains unsatisfactory, his or her services may be summarily terminated.

3. If the Probation Completion Order is not issued on or before the last day of Probation period, it will be deemed to be terminated from services.

Confirmation of services:

1. On successful completion of the probation, the services of the probationer will be confirmed as per the terms of appointment. HR shall send the confirmation to the employee through the HOD within one week before end of probation.

2. Upon confirmation, the notice period on either side will be two months. It is mandatory to serve the notice period and the option of offsetting the notice period, partly or fully will be at the sole discretion of the management. The management may also, at its sole discretion, accept notice pay in lieu of the notice period. Notice pay shall mean gross salary of the employee.

PROMOTION

1. Promotions to higher positions are based on qualification enhancement, competencies, past performance and on merit. Hence, on promotion the individual's work profile and responsibility will change. The organization will always consider the AICTE rules and regulations in this matter. College will follow a certain criterion for determining the promotion. These criteria are being listed below:

- Requisite qualification and experience
- Job knowledge
- Skill requirements/competencies of the job
- Performance history of past 2-5 years
- Demonstrated leadership qualities and teamwork
- Value-based job-related behavior in the past.

2. Promotion is not automatic and cannot be claimed by an employee as a matter of right. The internal promotion committee will be constituted and it will meet as and when required. Based on the recommendations, the final decision will be taken by the principal, later approved by GB.

3. Promoted employees will be given a higher level of salary -Grade/Scale appropriate to the increased responsibilities, but it necessarily does not need to be the same drawn by the person previously occupying the post. Vacancies might be filled with internally and/or externally qualified candidates. Internal candidates will be given equal opportunity to compete with external candidates.

4. In case a sudden vacancy at a higher level needs to be filled immediately with an internal candidate from a lower level, he/she may be given an 'acting' responsibility by the principal, later approved by GB till normal recruitment to the position can be held.

5. Filling up of any post's consequent to retirement, resignation, termination, cessation of employment, transfer, demotion, and promotion etc. of permanent incumbent shall not be automatic and will be done at the discretion of the principal. Creation of new or additional posts in any salary rate or abolition of existing posts in any salary rate will be done at the discretion of the GB on the basis of need analysis and financial capability. None of the above prescriptions and restrictions hold good for Contract staff whose service is bound solely by the terms in the appointment order.

6. For Non-Teaching staff, time-bound Grade Promotions as stipulated in the pay revision will be granted.

FACULTY RATIFICATION

1. To ensure all existing faculty members, who are recruited by college selection committee, are ratified by selection panel members selection committee complying with regulatory requirements. All faculty recruited by the Selection Committee and whose names are recommended for ratification shall have to attend the ratification interviews conducted by the external panel member from other university from time to time. The Institute shall notify all eligible faculties to attend the ratification interviews as per our notified schedule.

2. The onus of meeting the standard soft he ratification committee shall be on the faculty. In case a faculty member fails to be ratified, his or her annual appraisal period will be extended by six months or until the next ratification interview, whichever is later.

3. The annual increment in such cases shall be released only after ratification in the subsequent batch. In addition, such a faculty shall forego the DA which may be announced during the extended appraisal period, and will be eligible for it only at the end of the extended appraisal period.

4. While those who fail the ratification process the first time shall be accorded a second chance, a second failure will cause a faculty's services to be terminated. In effect, a faculty shall be deemed to be on probation for one year or until ratification, whichever is later.

5. A faculty who does not attend the ratification interview as required may also invite termination. Only on serious medical grounds, with due medical certificate, may a faculty seek exemption from attending a ratification interview. In all such cases, the principal shall be the deciding authority.

LEAVE RULES

OBJECTIVE

The very objective of framing the Leave policy in our institution is to provide reasonable opportunity to the members of staff to meet their medical exigencies/emergencies and also to attend to their personal and domestic problems as well as requirements. Unless a member of staff is free from other burdens, concentrating on his teaching and other official functions could be affected adversely, is the idea behind providing them with the reasonable opportunity to take leave from their duties while earning their salaries for such leave of absence. Keeping these aspects in view the policy is designed or formulated.

ELIGIBILITY AND APPLICABILITY

All the members of staff who have put in a minimum of one year service and are confirmed on the regular rolls of the college would be eligible for the leaves detailed here in below. Other employees those who have not put in minimum service as prescribed and those who are on temporary or probation and working on daily wages will be given casual leave on prorated basis.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Casual leave:

1. Members of staff who have completed one year of service are entitled for Twelve (12) days Casual Leaves.

2. Casual leave should be availed with prior approval from the HOD and after sanction from the principal. However, in case of emergency where there is no opportunity to take prior approval, information should be given to the HOD through message or phone call and submit the Casual Leave application immediately on resuming duty.

3. Casual Leave can either be prefixed or suffixed with holiday/weekly offs, not on both sides of the holidays/weekly offs. In case Casual leave is availed on both sides of a holiday/ Weekly off, Intervening holidays or weekly offs will be considered as casual leave and CL to that extent will be debited from the leave credit of the member of staff.

4. Member of staff whose service is less than one year, will be entitled to Casual Leave from the date of joining, calculated on prorata basis, i.e. at One CL per every completed service of one month from the date of joining and the same will be credited on the first day of succeeding month

5. Casual leave cannot be permitted to be availed for more than 03 days on each occasion. 3 days leave will be given in case of death of parents and close relatives.

6. Members of staff 10 days off will be given for Wedding to permit in our management.

7. If leave is not taken for an entire Semester, 1 day salary will be paid at the rate of 3 CL.

4. Before proceeding on Maternity Leave the individual concerned will have to produce a certificate from the doctor indicating the probable date of delivery, based on which she will be sanctioned Maternity Leave as indicated above.
5. As a general rule 90 days of leave will be availed in two parts i.e., 45 days before and 45 days after the date of delivery, or as per the convenience of the concerned woman staff member at the discretion of the principal.
6. In case of requirement of maternity leave for further extended period beyond the permitted Leave, the same could be adjusted against HPL if any to the credit of the concerned woman staff member, in which case the request for extension may be considered subject to furnishing of a Medical Certificate from a Doctor at the sole discretion of management at the recommendation of the principal.
7. A member of woman staff should have completed one year service for getting eligible for Maternity leave.
8. Maternity leave should be availed with prior approval from the HOD/principal/Management (through proper channel).

Academic leave:

1. Teaching staff those who have completed one year of service are permitted to go on Academic Leave for the purposes of Academic interests such as for pursuing further higher qualifications like Ph.D. etc. or for Seminars, symposiums, workshops etc. which may personally benefit in their career. As such, teaching staff are entitled to 12(Twelve) days of Academic Leave in a calendar year for purposes of Academic interests only with the prior permission of the principal. In extraordinary situations, Management can sanction Academic Leave beyond the prescribed Twelve days with the recommendation of the principal.

2. Those that join the college midway during the year, will get leaves on prorated basis. Leave should be availed with prior approval and sanction from the principal.

3. Academic Leave cannot be accumulated. Un-availed leaves will lapse at the end of the calendar year. Leave can be prefixed or suffixed with holiday/weekly offs. However, such holidays occurring during the period on Leave will be counted as part of leave.

Earning Leave:

1. Earned Leave (EL) refers to a type of leave granted to employee as a benefit for working a certain period without taking time off. It accumulates over Time, typically based on the number of days worked.
2. The eligible of the employees for earned leave after completing 1 year of continuous service.

Compensatory off:

1. Compensatory off is granted to those members of staff, who have performed duties on their weekly off/ holidays, with the prior written permission from the principal. While working on Sunday or on any other declared holiday, staff should work for a minimum period of six working hours for eligibility of one Compensatory Off.

2. In order to meet exigencies of Institution work, employees who are permitted to work on their weekly off/declared holidays will be allowed to avail compensatory off.

3. The compensatory off earned during the six months' period i.e. either during the first six months or during the second six months of the calendar year, should be availed within that six months' period only. Un-availed days of compensatory off of any six months' period cannot be carried forward to the next six months under any circumstances.

4. Compensatory off will be sanctioned by the principal with the recommendation of the HOD.

5. Compensatory off should be availed with prior approval from the HOD and after sanction from the principal.

On duty:

1. In case a member of teaching staff is deputed by the Principal/HOD on the specific instructions of the University on duties like Observer, for paper valuation or any such other official function either of University or of the college, then his period of absence to the college will be treated as Official.

TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

The Management strongly believes that continuous updating of knowledge and technology is the hallmark of a teacher. To meet this need, the institute encourages the departments to organize FDP and Work Shop for the benefit of the faculty and also lends support when the faculty wants to attend FDP/STTP and Work Shop in other reputed institutions.

All newly joined employees upon completion of the formalities undergo an induction program, intended to familiarize them with the dynamics of the organization. The methodology would be that of guided interaction with the various sections in the staff. In recognition of their experience and expertise, senior staff members would often be asked to participate as facilitators in the Induction Program, on a need basis. The induction process may be phased over a few days so as not to disrupt the daily work of staff and those conducting the induction. Training module will be developed and put in place for induction process. The following are to find place in the Training module.

1. Explain the Vision, Mission and Guiding Principles of the college
2. Explain the Vision, Mission and Guiding Principles of the department.
3. Explain the PSOs and PEOs of the department.
4. Provide access for the new employee to read the policy documents such as HR Manual, Handbook etc.

5. Describe key office norms and policies, systems, manual of procedures etc.
6. Appraise about the job description with the employee.
7. Orientation on Faculty Appraisal System.

CAPACITY BUILDING PLAN

A Capacity Building Need Analysis will be conducted internally by Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at the beginning of the academic year, if need with the help of external experts specifically looking into the job requirements of each individual and scope of the job in the future. Coaching is intended to provide encouragement, guidance, correction and to identify strengths, weaknesses, learning/ training/career interests which will help the staff, not only to improve their performance, but also to identify problem areas inhibiting achievement of the set objectives and behaviors and to provide an opportunity to make adjustments to approved action plan.

There are two ways of providing such capacity building plan:

1. Faculty Development Program – FDP: One can be in-situ training with the help of external resource persons or agencies for a larger group of personnel. These will be planned from time to time depending on the requirement. On the basis of a need analysis, yearly plan of action will be prepared, approved and strictly followed.

2. The second type of training is an individual availing training provided by external organizations /Institutions.

All employees upon attending any program will make a written report and supplement the same with a presentation to the rest of the colleagues in the department. This will be considered as an important part of all trainings. Those attending the program, especially outside

Programs will ensure that the resource materials procured as part of the training are made available to the documentation section so as to turn it as organization asset. Individual Staff members attending the trainings conducted by external agencies shall share their experience with the Staff of the department.

3. For the purpose of the development of staff employed, the college may consider sponsorship of staff members to such recognized external courses in institutes/ universities of repute for specific training.

4. The program sponsored should be relevant to the assignments being carried out by college and undergoing the same would enhance the contribution of the staff member and the organization.

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT POLICY

The faculty member shall submit the open and transparent appraisal performance report every year, containing the teacher's academic activities and achievements.
